

DEPARTMENT H 4-H CONTEST

DIVISION 3 4 - H PRESENTATIONS

SHOW TIME: Saturday, May 9th, 9 a.m. Park County Fairgrounds

PLEASE NOTE: The 4-H Presentations Contest is not limited by subject matter, i.e. topics can include but are not limited to established 4-H projects.

PREMIUM SCHEDULE: B

RULES:

1. Presentations: Counties of less than 400 enrollment may present seven presentations on any topic. Counties of more than 400 enrollment may present 10 Senior presentations on any topic. Top Intermediate Presenter (one) earns a trip to Wyoming State Fair. Top Junior Presenters receive a Special Award from 4-H Council.
2. Presentations are judged on knowledge of subject matter and presentation impact. Senior presentations shall be at least 7 minutes, but not longer than 15 minutes. Junior presentations shall be at least 5 minutes, but not longer than 7 minutes. You will be penalized for going under or over the time limits. Time taken at the end for answering questions will not be counted as time for the presentation.
3. The Presentation Contest emphasizes development of verbal communication skills. Presentation delivery may include, but is not limited to demonstrations, interactive exhibits, skits, dramas, public speaking, visual aids, video and/or multi media displays. If the presenter cannot attend state fair, a video presentation may be submitted. The video will be judged on its ability to demonstrate effective communication skills.
4. Participants may be enrolled in any 4-H project. A presenter cannot compete in the state fair contest for two years in succession without a change in subject matter. Proper food handling techniques are the responsibility of the individual.
6. Contests at state fair are for Senior and Junior 4-H members. Juniors are not eligible for Denver Roundup trips.
7. Presenters must provide their own audio visual equipment.

Class:

1. Junior (8 - 10 years old)
2. Intermediate (11 - 13 years old)
3. Seniors (14 - 19 years old)

DIVISION 75 4 - H LIVESTOCK JUDGING CONTEST

RULES:

1. All 4-H youth are eligible to compete in state judging contests as an individual and/or team member.
2. Participants must be designated as eligible by their county in order to compete. Counties are encouraged to enter as many youth as they deem eligible.
3. Teams can be made up of 3 or 4 youth. Only the 3 highest scores determine the team totals. Each county can enter 1 Junior team and 1 Senior team and as many individual members as they choose.
4. Junior teams consist of youth whose 4-H age is 13 years and younger (Junior, intermediate age youth), while Senior teams consist of youth whose 4-H age is 14 years and older.
5. Funding for teams and individual depends on funds available through the 4-H Council.

Entry Note: Please enter each youth in only one class.

2. Senior Individual Premium Schedule C
3. Junior Team member Premium Schedule B
4. Intermediate Individual Premium Schedule C
5. Junior Individual Premium Schedule B

The 10 classes to be judged will be made up from the following:

- a. Beef Cattle classes (market, breeding, and performance)
- b. Sheep classes (market, breeding, and performance)
- c. Swine classes (market, breeding, and performance)

If classes are not available as indicated above, the management is authorized to use their best judgment to make the contest classes as good as possible.

At least three sets of oral reasons will be given. Reasons will be given on beef, sheep, and swine.

The State Fair reserves the right to select one animal but no more than 10 percent of the 4-H animals from a county in each kind of livestock (beef, sheep, and swine) for use, if needed, in the state 4-H livestock judging contest. All 4-H members bringing 4-H livestock exhibits to the State Fair must agree to allow their animal or animals to be used for this purpose, if needed.
